Campus Government On The Move

Regularly meeting on Tuesday nights, the committee working on the formation of a constitution for student government reports steady progress.

In recent meetings, group discussion has included the preliminary statement to the constitution, naming the group, and accompanying facets of those issues. Under the direction of temporary chairman Reed Morgan, and with the cooperation of Dean of Students Charles Keown, the committee gives careful consideration to the working constitutions of other colleges.

The most recent meeting (Sunday night) the group discussed and tentatively named the legislative body, determined membership qualifications and set the proportional representation of the body.

Serving under chairman Morgan, a senior speech major from Corbin, is John Lovett, vice chairman. Lovett is a junior from Benton majoring in government. He represents general college clubs on the committee. Morgan is a member of the group by virtue of being president of the junior-class last year.

Secretary for the group is Mary Louise Jones, a senior English and biology major from Cadiz. Representing the Panhellenic Council, Miss Jones is also president of the Leiper English club.

Other members of the committee include Carlyle Park, a senior from Greenville, representing departmental clubs; Marilee Jensen, a junior German and Spanish major from Louisville, representing women's residence halls; Earl Edmonds, a sophomore English and physical education major from Covington, representing the sophomore class.

Also on the committee are Marshall Peace, a junior business administration major from Hopkinsville, representing

SNEA Picks Fuller Winner

Shirley Cameron, junior elementary education major from Cadiz, has won SNEA's second annual Ruth Fuller Scholarship. The scholarship, in memory of the member of Western's education department killed last year in a traffic accident, was presented to Miss Cameron at Tuesday night's SNEA Christmas party. She is serving as SNEA treasurer this year.

Nine other SNEA members were presented scholarships at the party. They are Joy Collier, senior English and mass media major from Beech Creek; Connie Daw, sophomore elementary education major from Calhoun; Roger Frizzell, junior elementary education major from Beaver Dam;

Karen Hopper, junior elementary education major from Clay; Thelma Bledsoe Kniffley, senior library science and history major from Columbia; Darlene Livers, sophomore elementary education major from Brandenburg;

Wilma Perry, sophomore elementary education major from Bowling Green; Sandra Pruitt, senior elementary education major from Franklin; and Sharon Roby, junior elementary education major from Owensboro.

The money for these scholarships is from the interest accrued on the principal in the SNEA scholarship fund, which is now above the $5,000.00 mark.

Senior Reigns Over Dance

Miss Kandy Kohlmeier, a senior psychology major from Evansville, was chosen by the cadets of the ROTC department to reign as queen at the 32nd annual Military Ball.

The formal event took place Friday evening in the Paul L. Garrett Student Center.

Voting for the queen was conducted throughout the month of November in a very beneficial manner. Coins were used in the balloting for the queen. The money accumulated will be used to establish a cadet assistance fund through the College Heights Foundation to enable some young man to attain a college education.

Among the guests attending the ball were Dr. William R. Hourigan, Associate Dean of Undergraduate Instruction, and Mrs. Hourigan; and Dr. William Jenkins, Dean of the College of Commerce, and Mrs. Jenkins.

Holidays Begin Tomorrow; Two Tournaments Scheduled

Most students will begin their Christmas vacation tomorrow afternoon although for some the vacation period does not officially start until after classes Saturday at 12:45 p.m.

Classes will resume after the holidays at 8 a.m. Monday, Jan. 3.

During the first few days of the vacation period the Hill-topper basketball team will see action in two major tournaments, the Vanderbilt Invitational and the annual Ohio Valley Conference meet. A complete preview of the two tournaments is carried in the sports section of this issue.

Get-togethers are set for alumni and friends of the college at both tournaments. The two informal coffees are under the supervision of Lee Robertson, director of alumni and placement.

The Sigma Chi house on Vanderbilt's campus in Nashville is the location reserved for Westerners during the Invitational. Refreshments will be served both tomorrow and Saturday, from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m., in the house dining room.

Mrs. Grace Overby of the alumni and placement office will take care of registration at the coffee. Larry Dykes of the public relations office will be in charge of other arrangements.

Official greeters include E. A. Diddle, Robert Cochran, Harold McGuffey and Dee Gibson. Many other college officials also plan to attend.

At the OVC Tournament in Louisville, Dec. 20-21, Western will host an alumni coffee in Parlors B and C of the Kentucky Hotel. Refreshments will be served Monday, from 4:30 until 6:30 p.m., and after the game until midnight.

Schedules Announced

The College Heights Post Office has posted its holiday schedule in the student center.

Helm Library and the Kentucky Building Library have announced special vacation - period hours in this issue of the Herald.

Included in the 12-page spring schedule supplement is the official schedule for the fall semester's final exams, slated the last week in January.

3 Resume Classes On Temporary Order

A temporary restraining order allowed three students suspended Dec. 2 because of an off-campus magazine article to return to classes Monday.

The students were indefinitely suspended because of an article appearing in The Skewer, their off-campus publication. They will be permitted to attend classes until Dec. 21 when a hearing will decide on the students' request for an injunction making the court order permanent.

Clerk Signs Order

John P. Hanes, clerk of the Warren Circuit Court, signed the court order in the absence of Judge Robert M. Coleman. Frank Bonasso, Robert N. Johns both of Russellville, and Samuel A. Lawson, Louisville, obtained the court order by filing a complaint against President Kelly Thompson, Rhea Lazarus, registrar, and Charles Keown, dean of students.

George Chakos, Pittsburgh, Pa., had withdrawn shortly before being suspended. But the suspension was declared retroactive, and he also appealed the suspension.

The suspensions were ordered by an administrative - faculty committee which found the article "objectionable." The article discussed the double sex standard, "the practice of allowing males complete sexual freedom while requiring women to remain chaste."

First Appeal Denied

Their complaint stated that the students "... will not be able to maintain their scholastic standing and will suffer great and irreparable damage and injury" if they are refused class attendance.

The students' appeal of the committee's decision to Dr. Thompson was denied. In a letter addressed to the four and released to news media Dec. 9, Dr. Thompson stated that Western not only had the right but the responsibility to set moral and ethical standards for the student body. He said that "vulgarity is non-compatible with the purposes and objectives of Western."

'Private Life'

The students denied that the article was obscene, and asserted the magazine was part of their "private life," and that their aim was only "to create a fertile field for creative thinking."

The hearing will decide on the question of whether the college's stand is unconstitutional under the Kentucky and federal constitution. Continued on page 16, column 1

NSF APPLICATIONS NOT ACCEPTED NOW

Applications for participation in the National Science Foundation program are NOT being accepted at this time.

Dr. H. L. Stephens said applications will be accepted at a later, pre-announced date.

The Herald incorrectly stated in last week's issue that applications were now being accepted.

4 Of Faculty Get Grants

At the last two meetings of the Faculty Research Committee, four new grants were made. Dr. W. H. Solley and Miss Betty Langley, members of the physical education department, were given a grant to study "The Relationship Between Rhythm of a Ballistic Movement (Golf Swing) and Successful Performance."

Dr. W. H. Solley was given a second grant. The title of this project is "A Comparison of Physical Fitness Levels of Western Kentucky State College Students with Peer Groups in Other Colleges and Universities in the Country."

The head of the physics department, Dr. Marvin W. Russell, also received a grant. The title of Dr. Russell's project is "Mathematical Models and Physical Analogies Relating to Plant Competition and Yield."

Psychology department member Dr. A. W. Laird received a grant to study "Western Kentucky State College Dropouts—With Emphasis Discovering and Stimulating Drop-Out Talented and Gifted Youth."

Toppers Place Sixth In Rifle Tournament

The Topper rifle team competed in the Walsh Rifle Tournament, Xavier University, Cincinnati, placing sixth in the November tourney.

Thirty-four teams participated in the tournament, which was won by Murray State College.

Outstanding marksmen for Western in the tourney were Larry Heishman and William Truelove, both with total scores of 276.

PLACEMENT OFFICE INTERVIEWS

On-campus interviews in the Placement Office have begun and all graduating seniors should take advantage of these interviews.

They should also file with the Placement Office and get the necessary information and credentials on file prior to the interviews in which they are interested.

Each person desiring to discuss employment opportunities with the recruiters should come to the placement office and sign for a definite time to be interviewed.

Watch the bulletin boards and the college paper for additional interviews as they are scheduled.

FIRE BY NIGHT . . . Bowling Green firemen were called to Western's music building at 9:06 last Thursday night after a fire was discovered in a stairway area. Damage was estimated by a college official at approximately $1,500. The blaze broke out in the same part of the building damaged by fire six days earlier. Minor outbreaks of flames, reported throughout last week, made a total of five alarms during the six-day period.

Community Is Laboratory For Students In Nursing

By NELDA LLOYD

The laboratory for students in the Department of Nursing is the community.

Under the guidance of faculty members Mrs. Bernice Zeidler and Mrs. Janice Gibson, students in the second year of the nursing program spend several hours each week learning how health needs of the community are met through the services of the staff of the Warren County Public Health Department.

They observe in the various clinics held in the health department and accompany staff nurses on visits to schools and homes.

The students also join the sanitarian on inspections of dairies and restaurants and learn about the control of social disease by making contact visits with the VD Control Agent.

Each student is also scheduled, assignments at obstetricians' offices for experiences designed to increase understanding of continuity of care for mothers and infants.

Enthusiastic Reports
The students are enthusiastic in their reports of opportunities for learning obtained in the offices of Drs. Harper Wright and Roy Slezak, and Dr. N. Z. Kafoglis, according to their instructors.

These community activities supplement learning experiences engaged in concurrently at the Bowling Green - Warren County Hospital as a part of the course in Nursing 106, Maternity Nursing.

Sophomore nursing students are already beginning to think about and prepare for the State Board Examination which they will be taking in July, 1966, after they receive the Associate in Science Degree in Nursing (ASDN) in June.

The general comment heard most frequently is that the time has gone by so quickly it seems unreal that they will so soon be employable as registered nurses.

Westerners Win KIAE Trophies

Several Western students won trophies for their industrial arts projects in recent competition at the Kentucky Industrial Education Association convention in Louisville.

Fifty campus industrial arts major attended the convention sessions at the Kentucky Hotel.

Among winners for projects were Robert Armstrong and Kenneth Harris, who won first place in the student demonstrations division.

Tom Caskey placed second in teacher-made training aids for his scale model of a night stand.

Duane Rector, a College High senior, was first in grade 11 competition. The win was a repeat for Rector, who won the grade 10 contest last year.

Daniel Wink, Horace Shadler, Bruce Clevenger and Frank Pittman won door prizes at the convention.

DOLLS FROM EAST . . . Under the direction of Terri Wirth, Owensboro freshman, East Hall residents are making dolls and toys for underprivileged children of Bowling Green. They call the program "Operation Merry Christmas."

Owensboro Freshman Initiates 'Operation Merry Christmas'

Terri Wirth of East Hall has put "Operation Merry Christmas" into orbit.

When Terri, a freshman from Owensboro, decided that underprivileged children from Bowling Green should have as big a Christmas as anyone else, she asked each girl in the dorm to donate 25 cents.

With this money, she bought socks and material to make rag dolls. Other girls in the dorm quickly volunteered to help and the project was under way.

Miss Wirth asks that anyone wanting to contribute money, material or their time to make these dolls and food baskets can contact her at 745-4509, Room 311, East Hall.

Bowling Green residents wishing to donate old dolls may contact Raymond McClard, Warren Co. Jailor, who is a member of the Civitan Club. McClard helps to co-ordinate the actions of the club, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the three fire departments in the collection and repairing of old used toys. These toys are in turn distributed by the Jaycees, the Salvation Army and the various church denominations.

New Approach May Find Students Grading Profs

By FRAN NELSON

Will the day ever come when college faculty members keep notes on how to stay on the good side of certain students? Will teachers label one in their midst the "students' pet?"

The day may come. According to notes compiled by November's Education Abstracts, an informal survey of articles about higher education published by the American College Public Relations Association, students at several schools have turned the tables.

From the Baltimore News American of Nov. 2 comes notice that 6,000 University of Washington students rated their faculty. In the critique, conducted by the Associated Students of the University, only 34 out of 600 profs earned an "A".

To promote better teaching, Oregon has set aside $250,000 in bonuses for instructors in state colleges. Who decides which teachers get the cash? The students. (That news comes from the Oct. 25 Newsweek.)

Here's a tidbit from The New York Times of Oct. 19: Princeton has published a guide to the females on east coast campuses. Prepared by undergraduates, 10,000 copies are on sale at 25 men's colleges!

4-H Alumni Form Campus Club

After 10 years of pledging "head, heart, health and hands," 4-H club members just can't forget the ideals they've been working toward. Nor can they forget 4-H club work.

Organize Campus Club
Some 25 students — either current 4-H'ers or 4-H alumni — took steps recently for the organization of a campus 4-H service club.

At the group's second meeting, Roger Pitchford was elected president.

Other officers are Gary Smith, vice president; Elsie Cooper, secretary; Margaret Davenport, treasurer, and Margaret Ann Gentry, reporter.

The campus club is part of a state project to organize 4-H alumni on all state college campuses.

Programs Planned
Projects for the year include a recent Christmas party and future programs on job applications and interviews, camp counseling, health insurance, leadership in a 4-H club and the 4-H organization.

Members discussed community service projects to be carried out in the area with the cooperation of local Extension officials.

The Service club may provide judges for county events.

Developed With Age Change
The Service club idea developed when the national age limit for 4-H Club membership was lowered from 21 to 19.

Older 4-H'ers under the leadership of Jim Turner, 1964-65 state president from Russellville, and with the advice of John H. Heller, 4-H field agent from the University of Kentucky, met last summer at Dawson Springs and set up plans for Service clubs on state college campuses.

The organizations will provide an opportunity for 4-H alumni to support 4-H club work on a local and state level though they will not compete for awards.

Religious Activities

By Joseph Glowacki
Religious News Editor

Recently elected officers of the Lutheran Student Association, Gamma Delta, are Robert Olson and Dallas Dell, co-presidents; Karen Nagel, secretary, and Mark Hawley, treasurer.

The organization meets 5:30 each Sunday in the church.

The Westminster Fellowship will meet Jan. 9 at 5:30 p.m.

Newman club members recently completed one phase of cleaning, repairing and painting a home on the north side of Bowling Green. The group's activity was planned to help the invalid woman and her five small children, who live in the dwelling, to have a happier Christmas.

Faculty Facts

A publication by Dr. William Jenkins Jr. and associates, "The Law of the Cities," is the basis for the Legislative Research Commission's memorandum released early this month.

The LRC memorandum pointed out that there are "significant omissions" in the state laws concerning cities and that "immediate attention of the Legislature" is required. It also stated that certain laws allowing minor differences in classes could be corrected by general statements.

Dr. Jenkins is dean of the College of Commerce. His associates in preparing the publication were James W. Deese, an instructor of law at Western, and a number of Western students.

Deese was recently elected Secretary of the South-Central Regional Business Law Association at Nashville.

Paintings by a Western faculty member are currently on view at the Mid-States Art Exhibit, at the Museum of Arts and Science in Evansville.

Ivan Schieferdecker, an art department faculty member, had two paintings accepted for exhibition.

"The Performer" and "Bowl of Fruit" are the titles of the color intaglio prints presented by Schieferdecker.

"Mirage for Band," a composition by David Livingston, director of the Western Band, has been selected for publication this month according to the publisher, Bourne Co., in New York City.

This is Livingston's third composition for band to be published.

A graduate of Western and a doctoral candidate at Ohio State University, Livingston joined the faculty at Western in September. His compositions for band have received several performances in the South and Midwest.

Mrs. Juanita K. Park, supervising teacher in the Training School, delivered the principal address to 200 members of the Ohio County Education Association Nov. 4. Her subject was "The Image of the Teacher in Kentucky and the Harmony of Teaching."

She was presented a gavel by the association for her leadership in Third District and Ohio County.

Dr. Gordon Wilson Jr., head of the chemistry department and Dr. H. L. Stephens, biology department, plan a holiday trip to Chicago for a meeting of the National Science Foundation Dec. 18-19.

The meeting will concern the National Science Foundation summer institute for high school science teachers, of which Dr. Wilson and Dr. Stephens are directors.

Dr. Curtis C. Wilkins and Dr. John W. Reasoner, both chemistry department faculty members, recently attended a regional meeting of the American Chemical Society at Memphis.

More than 1,500 persons attended a symposium on freshman chemistry education, heard scientific papers, and looked at new equipment and instruments which were on display.

Col. John Paul Stapp addressed the chemists at a banquet which honored a leading chemist in the southwest region.

Mrs. Romanza Johnson of the home economics department attended the fall workshop of the Department of Classroom Teachers of the Kentucky Education Association recently in Lexington.

Mrs. Johnson addressed the group.

Four faculty and staff members were in Washington, D.C., in November, attending the annual convention of the National Association of Educational Broadcasters.

Highlighting the meeting was Vice President Hubert Humphrey's address at the NAEB banquet.

Western's delegates were Robert G. Cochran, director of public relations; Dr. Tate Page, dean of the College of Education and chairman of Western's educational television committee; Dr. Frederick Haas, an instructor of mass media courses in the English department, and Charles Zettlemoyer, of the business office.

Miss Ruth Hines Temple, head of the art department, Verne K. Shelton, of the art department, and Dr. James P. Anderson, of the art department and Training School faculty, attended the fall meeting of the Kentucky Art Education Association at Jenny Wiley State Park.

Dr. Anderson is a member of the state council of the association. Shelton, who is chairman of the membership committee for the National Art Education Association and Western Arts Association, also served as chairman of a panel which discussed teacher training in the field of art education.

Richard Jett, of the geology and geography department, recently traveled through the Highland Rim, Cumberland Plateau of Tennessee, and the Piedmont Plateau of Georgia on a geological expedition.

Dr. Kenneth Clarke of the English department attended the recent American Folklore Society meeting in Denver, Col.

Dr. Clarke was elected secretary of the folklore section of the South Atlantic Modern Language Association in Atlanta, Ga., early last month.

Dr. Howard Carpenter, head of the music department, represented the college at the 41st annual meeting of the National Association of Schools of Music in Chicago, Nov. 26 and 27.

Approximately 290 educational institutions were represented at the convention, of which Western has been a member since 1947.

Dr. James L. Davis of the geography and geology department recently had his book, "The Elevated System and the Growth of Northern Chicago," published. The book, a study in urban transportation is No. 10 in the Northwestern University Studies in Geography series, and is being distributed by the Northwestern University Press.

Dr. Tate Page, dean of the College of Education, Dr. Carl Kreisler and Robert Sleamaker of the education department, met Dec. 3 with representatives of the University of Kentucky and other state colleges in Lexington.

The development of a cooperative graduate program between the university and the other state colleges was discussed at the meeting.

Dr. John D. Minton, dean of the graduate school, was in Louisville last week attending a meeting regarding the Minimum Foundation Program. Dr. Minton is a member of the special committee studying the program.

The October issue of the Filson Club History Quarterly contained an article entitled "A Confederate Fort and Historical Marker on the Campus of Western Kentucky State College," written by Dr. Arndt M. Stickles, former head of the history department.

Dr. Paul Terrell, head of the geography and geology department, attended the annual convention of the National Council for Geographic Education in New York City, Nov. 26 and 27.

The main purpose of the meeting was the workshop for prospective directors of NDEA institutes.

Claude Rose of the music faculty conducted the community chorus in a performance of Handel's "Messiah" in Central City, Dec. 12.

Miss Julie Thompson, '65 Western graduate, accompanied the choir.

Dr. Mildred Howard and Randall Capps of the English department will attend the meeting of the Speech Association of America in New York City during the holidays.

Capps will also attend the American Forensic Association meeting while in New York.

Dr. James Wise of the English department will attend the national meeting of the Modern Language Association in Chicago Dec. 26-29.

Three From Faculty Attend Assembly For KEA Delegates

Three members of the Western faculty attended the Kentucky Education Association Delegate Assembly in Louisville last week. The purpose of the assembly was to discuss the 1966 KEA legislative program.

Dr. Luther Baxter, head of the department of agriculture; James A. Carpenter, director of the Training School, and Wilburn Jones of the mathematics department represented the Western faculty at the meeting.

Elected to serve the association at the Nov. 23 meeting were Barbara Simpson, president; Merry Lynn Buckles, vice president; Dianne Thurman, secretary; and Pam Bowman, treasurer.

Advisor of the club is Mrs. Lucy Erwin, head of the nursing department.

Future meetings will convene the second Tuesday of each month at 5 p.m. in the Kentucky Building.

Physical Education Club Plans Leadership Workshop

The Physical Education club is currently planning a Student Leadership Conferences Workshop, which will be conducted Apr. 1-2.

Gymnastics, track and field, swimming and tennis are included in the activities to be presented at the conference.

John Cooper, graduate assistant from England, will show slides of the 1964 Olympics at the club's meeting in January.

Delta Phi Alpha Initiates New Members

Initiated into Epsilon Upsilon Chapter of Delta Phi Alpha, national honorary German fraternity, Nov. 23 were Donna Harris, Jennifer Adams, Betty Gray and Belinda Chance.

Phillip Angevine presented slides made during his stay in Germany last summer as a member of the experiment in International Living.

Psychology Club Members Attend Peabody Lecture

Members of the Psychology club attended a lecture at George Peabody College in Nashville, Dec. 7.

"Magnitude of Reward and Reward Value in Retardates" was the topic of the lecture by Bill Blount. Blount is a graduate student at Peabody.

"Shades of Gray," a movie of mental health in the army, was shown at an earlier meeting of the club.

Campus Hosts Annual Clinic

The eighth annual Speech and Drama Clinic hosted several hundred high school students, their principals, drama coaches and teachers Nov. 22 in Van Meter Auditorium.

According to Dr. Russell H. Miller, director of speech activities at Western, "The all-day session of demonstrations, discussions, and critiques of various high school and drama activities makes available to the students and teachers of this part of the state the expert opinion that goes into planning and evaluating the speech and drama activities on the regional and state level."

Leading the various critiques were Wallace Briggs, Mrs. Margaret Greynolds and Dr. Denver Sloan from the University of Kentucky; Dr. Miller, Dr. Mildred Howard, Dr. Frederick Haas, and Randall Capps, all teachers of speech and drama at Western.

Participating high schools were College High, Bowling Green High, Warren County High, and Russellville High.

Various Demonstrations

The day's activities included a demonstration debate between College High students and Bowling Green High students.

An interpretation of serious and humorous literature and an interpretation of poetry was presented by students of Bowling Green High's speech class. An interpretation of prose was presented by students of Warren County High.

Speech students of College High presented an analysis of public address, and a program of extemporaneous speaking was given by Bowling Green High.

Russellville High students staged a one-act play demonstration.

In the junior high division, College High students presented public speaking and oratorical declamation. A dual acting demonstration was given by Bowling Green High, and a demonstration in radio speaking was given by students of Russellville High.

Exposure To Speakers Essential For Growth

Exposure to various contemporary experts and molders of opinion is essential for education and maturity.

There are many necessities in the process of education, but there are accessories which also must be present to produce a well-rounded product of an educational institution.

Those of the Western community are blessed with many educational essentials and a constant administrative effort to improve and increase these necessities. But what about those extras—the accessories?

One aspect of these educational extras concerns the opportunity to hear viewpoints and philosophies of outside speakers. It is a prerogative of college students to hear such speakers and to weigh their ideas and beliefs. The test of individual intelligence lies in analysis and evaluation of these presentations.

Number Now Limited

The number of outside speakers coming to Western's campus is now quite limited. The fine Rodes-Helm Lecture Series and occasional symposiums sponsored by various academic departments partially fill the need.

Is the college obligated to make more speakers available? If so, it is up to the students to realize the importance of these experiences and to recognize the void still present in this area.

The Herald has contacted several departments responsible for obtaining outside speakers.

College officials do realize the deficiencies in this area and the desirability of correcting the situation, but they also cite varied reasons for it.

Attitude Lacking

One primary reason is based on student attitude. Student apathy toward this slightly tapped resource of learning has been overbearing. It was pointed out that on more than one occasion embarrassingly low numbers of students attended Rodes-Helm lectures.

Because this is the only means by which outside speakers are presented to the entire student body, the apathy could suggest no need for additional speakers. On the other hand it could be a hint to responsible officials that the choice of speakers is sometimes a consideration.

Two other pertinent factors concerning limitations in this area are lack of sufficient funds to obtain many speakers and lack of administrative personnel handling arrangements for these events.

Has the Herald over-emphasized this phase of educational opportunity at Western? Will there be more initiative on the part of students, faculty and administrators to remedy it? The decision is yours.

Hill Has 'Week-end Doldrums'

Many groups have made a definite effort to shake Western out of the week-end doldrums. However, with the exception of an occasional dance, concert or sports event, Western is still somewhat subdued on the week-end.

It also appears that the Diddle Arena has been completely relegated to basketball and probably will not be the scene of any outside musical programs in the near future.

But there exists a definite need for activities and facilities designed for more informal groups. Western students need a place where these groups can go and have a good time during the evenings, especially on week-ends.

It is true that Western has an outstanding student center. It is a beautiful building and reflects the careful planning of the school. But the student center is closed at 10 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays and 8 p.m. on Sundays.

This schedule isn't really surprising because, unless you like your television interrupted at 10 p.m., there isn't much to do there. Is this the best that can be offered?

The student center should be a mecca, especially on week-ends. At least one Kentucky school shows first-rate movies in its student center on week-ends... of course, for a nominal fee.

... And so the Western students sadly leave the campus for the holidays.

The week-ends would also be suitable for chess, bridge and ping-pong tournaments. A few portable ping-pong tables would help remove the week-end desolation of the ballroom.

There is a good opportunity for some fraternity or independent group to carry the ball and organize week-end activities geared to the student center. It is a shame that the full potential of this fine building has not been realized.

HILLTOPICS

By BARBARA SHARP

After the paper came out last Friday afternoon, four indignant members of Western's band trooped into the Herald office and demanded an apology.

When asked why, the group pointed to the item concerning them in "Hilltopics" and said the reference to their behavior at the home game with Campbellsville was completely false; they also stated the Herald had done irreparable damage to their reputation. Further, they said, the item did not reflect the opinion of the majority of Western students.

They asked if they could compose a guest editorial which they felt would right the supposed wrongs. The editorial appears elsewhere on this page.

After these indictments from some band members, the Herald decided to ask for opinions from several non-band students and from the band director himself, David Livingston.

Asked if they felt the band ever behaved rudely at ballgames, numerous students indicated that the Herald had not been completely correct in its charges. These people pointed out that the band has indeed noticeably interrupted other bands and the organ, but the Herald had missed mention of cheerleader and speaker interruptions, both of which the band is also guilty.

Band director Livingston stated that he felt responsible for the conduct of Western's band. He added that he did not know the Campbellsville pep band had planned to attend the game, but that when it and other visiting pep bands do attend basketball games, he and the other band director(s) should work out an agreement on when and for how long each band will play.

He also emphasized the efforts of the band to support and boost school spirit—efforts which are often taken for granted.

That the band is a fine one (See "Band Music Fills Air With Spirit," Oct. 28 Herald, page 8) goes without question. Ditto that they sacrifice study to play for games—perhaps a thankless task. True also is the fact that they have suffered quite a loss in the music building fires. And a sporting event is never quite the same without "Big Red" support.

There will be no problem of "out-playing" pep bands from other OVC schools, as Article X, Paragraph J of the OVC Constitution and By-laws states: "Visiting pep bands shall not be allowed in basketball in the Ohio Valley Conference..." But the Herald feels that when-to-play agreements should be worked out with visiting pep bands from other colleges and that the band itself should re-examine its role at all home basketball games to determine what is beneficial and what is excessive.

Hilltopic

Goodwill is not dead!

Witness the many and varied forms of giving exhibited by groups across the Hill. Each Greek organization is busily preparing Christmas projects for the elderly, the sick and/or the homeless. The religious centers are pitching in with their share. Other groups are engaging in worthwhile missions.

And several individual efforts have been called to our attention. For example, freshman Terri Wirth in East Hall has initiated her own "Operation Merry Christmas" to bring cheer to some of Bowling Green's underprivileged youngsters.

So at least half of the wish for "Peace on earth, goodwill to men" is finding solution. With efforts such as these, perhaps the whole adage can become reality.

Pep Band Answers Hilltopics

As senior music majors we would like to defend the behavior of the Western Pep Band at the Dec. 6 game against Campbellsville College. An editorial from the College Heights Herald stated "It is felt by some that Western, particularly the band, owes the Campbellsville student body an apology" because we supposedly "can drown out" Campbellsville's pep band. We feel that no apology is needed! If fault in this action is to be found, it is not the fault of the members of the pep band. We play when, where and what our director tells us to. This is not our decision to make.

Concerning "a lack of sportsmanship" (to quote "Hilltopics"), does a crowd demonstrate a lack of sportsmanship when it cheers in competition with the opposing crowd?

Is it rude when our team does not step aside and let the other team walk up and dunk a basket?

One must understand that competition exists not only in sports and business, but also between bands and in one's every-day life. Having played in bands for over ten years, we can state with authority that playing while an opposing band is playing is not an uncommon occurrence. To call this a lack of sportsmanship on the part of the pep band is in error.

We were also accused of "holding a long warm-up" so as to cover up the music of the organ in the E. A. Diddle Arena. We wonder if the editors of the Herald realize that anyone who talks above a hush is also capable of this feat of strength. We believe you will find that from our seats in the arena it is very hard to tell if the organ is playing, let alone what is being played. As for announcements at the halftime, these are completely covered by the noise of the crowd and are inaudible to us.

We feel that Western's musical organizations are among the very best in the South, but like all team efforts, success in the future depends upon support from the student body.

hApPiNeSs AnD the Christmas set

by tod porter

As the festive holiday season approaches, all scholars have begun anew to seek out the nobler aspects of life.

These seekers of happiness have been discovered, during the past week, singing such seasonal favorites as "The Twelve Days Till Christmas." And faculty members, bless their roll books, have become almost believeable. They have adopted rational behavior, lest they be left out when the Christmas presents are distributed.

In the midst of all this merriment, there are some "hum-buggers." A person of this type says, "Christmas has lost its meaning; Christmas is too commercialized; Christmas is bad." Then he cries and wails if somebody else gets more presents than he does.

If you find yourself in this anti-Claus group, it may be difficult for you to achieve happiness during this particular time of year.

Because —
HAPPINESS is finding that there really is a Santa Claus.
HAPPINESS is receiving Graham crackers and marshmallows from your secret angel.
HAPPINESS is going Christmas shopping with money.

HAPPINESS is Home.

HAPPINESS is typing a pre-holiday term paper with the carbon turned the right way.

HAPPINESS is mistletoe and a Miss.

HAPPINESS is shopping on Christmas eve?

HAPPINESS is finding that you should have bought her a larger sweater.

HAPPINESS is having snow to go with your new sled.

HAPPINESS is a snowy day, an open fireplace, a warm rug—and a good book?

HAPPINESS and a MERRY CHRISTMAS to each student, faculty and staff member, and normal person.

hApPiNeSs is mistletoe and a miss.

"T'WAS THE NIGHT BEFORE DEADLINE" . . . Society editor Joy Collier takes time to read a holiday fable to staffers. But some were busy working on stories of their own for the last Herald of the year. (Right) In the true spirit of the season, Santa offers gifts to all. But one staff member refused, singing the old familiar song, "All I Want For Christmas Is a Full Page Ad."

Hark, The Herald Sings Of Christmas

"DECK THE HALLS WITH PROOFS FROM GALLEYS" . . . Some people just can't forget the Herald, even when they're decorating. At right, Susan McGloin interviews one of Western's oldest and most famous alumni, S. Claus. Extensive questioning uncovered a North Pole secret: Claus's tailor is a local firm, Monroe Rent-All. Below, staff members take time for just one more verse of "Joy On The Hill, the Herald's Out." Why does one songster motion for a halt? Her proofreader's eye spotted a spelling error in the song book! Once a Herald staffer, always a Herald staffer . . . even at Christmas.

Knowledge, Faith--Baptist Aim

EDITOR'S NOTE: This article is the third in a series designed to acquaint readers with the various religious centers and organizations on the campus.

By JOSEPH GLOWACKI

Seeking to provide a means whereby the student may develop spiritually both in knowledge and in actual practice of his faith, the Baptist Student Union has a busy year planned.

Part of their mission project included a Christmas party last Saturday for approximately 60 children from missions of this area. The children played games, sang songs, had refreshments. Then Santa came and gave each child a gift.

Several weekends a year BSU students conduct services at the missions churches. These students work with the young people of the mission, and they are completely in charge of all of the services.

Summer Missions

Germany, Panama, Jamaica, Japan and Nigeria are the areas of the world where the summer missions are located. Each year Baptist students from Kentucky are sent to these areas for a summer.

This year the Western BSU has three students who have applied. The trip is partially financed by donations collected by the Baptist students throughout the state.

The Faith and Life Colloquium is the newest program for the BSU. Walter Delamarter, head of Social Work Education at Southern Baptist Seminary, Louisville, conducted the first of these colloquiums.

The club hopes to make the colloquium a regular monthly program with well-qualified lecturers leading each program. The purpose of the colloquium is to show the student how to relate his faith and life to the various areas of discussion. The next colloquium is planned for Jan. 14.

Music for the services at the center as well as for Sunday night services at local churches is provided by approximately 65 members of the BSU.

Choir with student director Marc Ball. Week-end tours are planned for the choir next semester.

Regular activities of the BSU include Monday and Thursday Vespers at 6 p.m. These Vespers are basically worship and devotional services conducted entirely by students.

The BSU also publishes the Banner, its own monthly paper. This paper, edited by Joyce DeBoe, lists activities of the center and contains articles to provide help and advice for the students.

Leading the BSU this year are Eddie Owen, president; Janet Borders, vice president; and Sally Snazelle, secretary.

The Rev. Wayne Welch is the director of the Baptist Student Union.

Announcement of Courses

SPRING SEMESTER

JANUARY 1966

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Numbering of Courses

Courses numbered 100-199 are primarily for freshmen and sophomores; courses numbered 200-299 are for juniors and seniors only; courses 300-399 are primarily for seniors and graduate students; courses 400 and above are open to graduate students only.

Classification of Students

Beginning students are classified as freshmen; students with a minimum of 30 semester hours and 60 quality points, sophomores; 60 semester hours and 120 quality points, juniors; 90 semester hours and 180 quality points, senior.

Student Load

The standard load for undergraduate students is 16 hours per semester. To be considered a full-time student, one must earn a minimum of 12 hours each semester. As a general rule, freshmen entering for the first time will not be permitted to enroll for more than 17 hours of course work. Students whose previous records in the institution show an average of 3.0 will be permitted to carry a maximum of 18 semester hours. Students with an average scholastic standing of not less than 3.3 may, on the consent of the Committee on Credits and Graduation, enroll for a maximum of 21 hours.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Procedures To Be Completed Prior To Registration For The 1966 Spring Semester

Prior to registration all students NOT in attendance at Western Kentucky State College during the 1965 Fall semester must make application for admission or re-admission with the Office of Admissions. This regulation applies to:

1. Beginning Freshmen
2. Transfers
3. Re-admissions (students who have previously attended Western, but have been out of attendance one semester or longer.)

All applications for admission or re-admission should be submitted to the Office of Admissions by January 15, 1966. Applications submitted after this date will be processed but this may create a delay in registration.

Sigma Chi Installed Last Weekend; Projects, Parties Occupy Greeks

Sigma Chi

A local chapter of Sigma Chi fraternity was officially installed Saturday night at the Bowling Green country club.

Zeta Mu, the 141st active chapter of Sigma Chi, was activated by the Epsilon Tau installation team from Murray State College. The Sigs list 32 active members and approximately 35 pledges.

Norman Brewer, national executive committee member presented the charter to the group. George Cate, vice - mayor of Nashville, was the principal speaker at the banquet.

Jo T. Orendorf, president of Citizens National Bank, served as master of ceremonies and Dean Charles Keown presented the welcome on behalf of the college. Grand Consul Balon Turner, the national fraternity's highest ranking officer, was also present for the ceremonies.

Rick McLallen, consul of Zeta Mu, presented Brewer a Kentucky coloneley for his outstanding work for Sigma Chi in Kentucky. Brother Ken Morrow was recognized for achieving an honor score on the pledge test.

The brothers and pledges celebrated the chartering Sunday evening with a Christmas party at Detrex family club. The party was sponsored by the pledges.

Sigma Nu

Sigma Nu members and pledges have been canvassing door-to-door in Bowling Green collecting toys and children's clothing for distribution to needy children in the Kentucky mountains.

The fraternity will take the items to Alice Lloyd Junior College, Pippa Passes, this weekend. Alice Lloyd students annually distribute such items throughout remote areas of eastern Kentucky.

The fraternity has collected several hundred toys.

Sigma Nu active and pledges enjoyed their annual Christmas party last Friday evening. The party was held at the old VFW club. The "Chaplains" from Vanderbilt provided the music.

The Inter - Fraternity Council plans to recognize the outstanding Greek man at its first Greek Night, Jan. 7.

The award will be the highest distinction achievable by a Western fraternity man. Each fraternity has nominated one man in a fraternity other than its own.

The six men nominated for the title "Mr. Western Greek-1965-66" are Ron Gafney (SAE); Steve House (Lambda Chi); Jack Britt (AGR); Stan Zeidel (Delta Tau Delta); Jim Cherundolo (SAE); and Al Smith (SAE).

Each fraternity is allowed one vote and each faculty adviser is allowed one vote. Dean Jack Sagabiel and Dean Charles Keown, sponsors and co-ordinators of the fraternity program, also have one vote each.

Awards will also be presented during Greek Night by the IFC to the fraternity with the overall highest academic point standing. The fraternity with the most improved over-all point standing will be presented a plaque.

Kappa Sigma

Kappa Sigma Founder's Day was celebrated by members and pledges Friday, Dec. 3. A banquet and dance was held at Western Hills Restaurant.

Lucas Floyd, alumni adviser, was the featured speaker at the banquet. A dance followed with the "Rogues" providing the music.

Highlight of the evening came with the announcement that Kappa Sigma pledge Dick Hallerman was winner of the UMOG contest. Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity sponsored the 1965 Ugly Man on Campus contest.

Hallerman was presented an award and Kappa Sigma claimed the huge trophy.

Weekend activities concluded with the brothers and pledges being awarded third place for the float in the recent Bowling Green Christmas parade.

Delta Tau Delta

Members of the Delta Tau Delta Colony of Ball State University at Muncie, Ind., visited Western's Delta colony last weekend.

The visiting Deltas stayed on campus for two days. The men were en route to the Garland Rice Bowl game in Murfreesboro, Tenn.

"Christmas Around the World" was the theme of the float entered by the Deltas in the annual Christmas parade, Dec. 4.

Lambda Chi

The Lambda Chi Alpha Christmas party was at the Detrex Family Club Saturday night. Entertainment was supplied by the "Houserockers" from Franklin. Both actives and pledges presented skits.

AGR

Alpha Gamma Rho members are giving several food baskets to needy Bowling Green families for Christmas. The pledges have entertained members of pledge classes of the sororities at the AGR house throughout the semester.

ADPI

Last night the ADPI's had an informal meeting and Christmas party. The girls sang Christmas carols, had refreshments, and brought toys to give to the orphanage.

Christine DeVries Monroe and Anne Greenwell Guillaume, ADPI alums, are having a Christmas party during the holidays for the ADPI and Pi Sigma Upsilon alums in and around Louisville.

AOPi

The actives of AOPi entertained their pledges with a slumber party Friday night at the home of Reba Cain. The actives presented a skit and gag gifts were exchanged.

AOPi's traveling secretary, Wendie Nowlin, a graduate of the University of Florida, is visiting the campus this week. She has conducted conferences with chapter officers and attended a pledge meeting. During her visit she stayed in Terrace Hall.

AOPi's award for the best pledge of the week went to Lynn Wallace. The collegiate of the week, voted by the pledge class, was Jane Dunning.

Chi O

The pledge class of Chi Omega sponsored a scavenger hunt for all sorority pledge classes and their trainers last Sunday evening. All groups met at the Student Center and were given clues to finding objects on the campus.

The Chi O's joined the SAE's in giving a Christmas party for the children of Parker Bennett School. Candy and apples were given to all the students and entertainment came in the form of Santa and Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer. The Chi O's also went Christmas caroling this past week with Sigma Nu and Lambda Chi Alpha fraternities.

KD

The KD's got in the spirit of the holiday season with the arrival of their Christmas seals from the national office. The seals are part of the philanthropy of the sorority on the national level.

KD pledges made favors for the patients at Warren County Hospital. They also visited Potter Orphanage Saturday, taking treats to the children and spending the morning with them.

The whole sorority is preparing a Christmas basket to be given to a deserving family in Bowling Green.

Phi Mu

Phi Mu sorority celebrated the season yesterday with a Christmas party at the home of Gail Duncan. The pledges provided the entertainment.

This past week the Phi Mu pledges were entertained at a coke party given by Pike pledges.

All fraternity and sorority pledges have been invited to join Phi Mu pledges for Christmas caroling on campus tonight. They will be entertained in the S.U.B. and refreshments will be served.

Pat Ward was named last week's best pledge.

Sigma Kappa

As part of the local chapter's gerontology program, the Sigma Kappas went Christmas caroling to nursing homes and various other places in the community.

The Sigma Kappa pledges are currently working on their pledge project for the chapter.

THE BLUEBIRD OF HAPPINESS HAS FLOWN THE COOP

Can education bring happiness?

This is a question that in recent years has caused much lively debate and several hundred stabbings among American college professors. Some contend that if a student's intellect is sufficiently aroused, happiness will automatically follow. Others say that to concentrate on the intellect and ignore the rest of the personality can only lead to misery.

I myself favor the second view, and I offer in evidence the well-known case of Knut Fusco.

Knut, a forestry major, never got anything less than a straight "A," was awarded his B.T. (Bachelor of Trees) in only two years, his M.S.B. (Master of Sap and Bark) in only three, and his D.B.C. (Doctor of Blight and Cutworms) in only four.

Academic glory was his. His intellect was the envy of every intellect fan on campus. But was he happy? The answer, alas, was no. Knut—he knew not why—was miserable; so miserable, in fact, that one day while walking across campus, he was suddenly so overcome with melancholy that he flung himself, weeping, upon the statue of the Founder.

By and by, a liberal arts coed named Nikki Sigafos came by with her Barby doll. She noted Knut's condition. "How come you're so unhappy, hey?" said Nikki.

"Suppose you tell me, you dumb old liberal arts major," replied Knut peevishly.

"All right, I will," said Nikki. "You are unhappy for two reasons. First, because you have been so busy stuffing your intellect that you have gone and starved your psyche. I've got nothing against learning, mind you, but a person oughtn't to neglect the pleasant, gentle amenities of life—the fun things. Have you, for instance, ever been to a dance?"

Knut shook his head.

"Have you ever ... and then to a justice of the peace," watched a sunset? Written a poem? Shaved with a Personna Stainless Steel Blade?"

Knut shook his head.

"Well, we'll fix that right now," said Nikki, and gave him a razor, a Personna Stainless Steel Blade, and a can of Burma Shave.

Knut lathered with the Burma Shave and shaved with the Personna and for the first time in many long years he smiled. He smiled and then he laughed—peal after peal of reverberating joy. "Wow-wow!" he cried. "What a shave! Does Personna come in injector style, too?"

"It does," said Nikki.

"Gloriousky!" cried Knut. "And does Burma Shave come in menthol, too?"

"It does," said Nikki.

"Huzzah!" cried Knut. "Now that I have found Personna and Burma Shave I will never have another unhappy day."

"Hold!" said Nikki. "Personna and Burma Shave alone will not solve your problem—only half of it. Remember I said there were two things making you unhappy?"

"Oh, yeah," said Knut. "What's the other one?"

"How long have you had that bear trap on your foot?" said Nikki.

"I stepped on it during a field trip in my freshman year," said Knut. "I keep meaning to have it taken off."

"Allow me," said Nikki and removed it.

"Land's sakes, what a relief!" said Knut, now totally happy, and took Nikki's hand and led her to a Personna vendor and then to a justice of the peace.

Today Knut is a perfectly fulfilled man, both intellectually and personally. He lives in a charming split-level house with Nikki and their 17 children and he rises steadily in the forestry game. Only last month, in fact, he became Consultant on Sawdust to the American Butchers Guild, he was named an Honorary Sequoia by the park commissioner of Las Vegas, and he published a best-selling book called I Was a Slippery Elm for the FBI.

Players To Offer Comedy By Moliere

By VALETTA EWING

"He was the first great modern. In his art
The very times their very manners show;
But for he truly drew the human heart
In his true page all times themselves shall know."

These words by Richard Watson Gilder describe Moliere — the keen observer, the humorist, the foremost of comic dramatists. With the gift of rich fun he skillfully depicted the attitudes and extravagances of society in his 17th century France.

A comedy by Moliere, the "Le malin" was brought out at the Palais-Royal on Aug. 6, 1666.

The play was devised to please the burghers of Paris. They had a hearty liking for broad fun and were not unduly squeamish over its breadth. The spectators enjoyed the comic satirization of the pompous pretenses of the practitioners of medicine at that time.

Thus "Medecin malgré lui" achieved its immediate purpose of attracting paying audiences to the Palais-Royal, and its popularity has survived to the present day.

To Play Here

A modern adaption of Moliere's classic comedy, "The Doctor in Spite of Himself" will be presented in Van Meter Auditorium Jan. 12, 13 and 14.

"The Doctor in Spite of Himself," directed by Dr. Russell H. Miller, is Western Players' second major production of the season.

David Schramm will star in the role Moliere created for himself — that of Sganarelle. He is the poor woodcutter who in spite of his protests becomes a prominent physician.

Bettye Shely will portray Sganarelle's scolding wife, Bill DeArmond will play the wealthy Geronte.

Others in the cast are Fred Dyrsen, Steve Jenkins, Tom Brown, Jim Bryant, Judy Miller, Joe Hinds, Marcia Clifford, Donald Pay, Donna Mickey and Lisette Norman.

Coach Moore Attends State Tennis Meeting

Assistant tennis coach Ballard Moore attended the annual meeting of the Kentucky State Tennis Association Friday in Louisville.

The meeting included plans for the coming tennis season and featured Joe Creason of the Courier-Journal, who spoke on high school and college tennis.

Moore, former head tennis coach at the University of Kentucky, is current head of the Tennis by Summers program at New York's fashionable Racquette Lake Girls Club.

'Tops' In The Social Whirl

By JOY COLLIER

"It's so nice to be going home for the holidays" is the refrain of Western students at this time of the year.

Two more days of classes and then two weeks of relaxation and social activities — social activities which are different from those on campus in that old, familiar faces are present, and no guilty conscience is driving the student back to his studying.

Happy holidays!

The annual Military Ball was again an enjoyable and exciting affair, with charming couples and a "Cinderella" atmosphere.

Dorm 'Dope'

By SALLY KENNEY

Regents Hall's Christmas party was last night at 10:30. Santa Claus attended the festivities in the lobby.

Initiating the night was the devotional followed by a skit satirizing "The Night before Christmas."

Carols were sung and punch and cake were served. A number of girls decorated their doors this year and judges were invited to choose the best one.

A group of Regents' girls will go caroling on campus tonight.

Whitestone Hall introduced the Christmas season with their party last night at 9:30 in their lobby.

Following a Christmas skit a group of girls went caroling on campus.

Among those the group entertained was Coach Ed Diddle, because "We know he just loves that," said director of Whitestone, Mrs. Edith Kendall.

Last night McLean Hall participated in their Christmas party in the lobby at 10:30.

The girls drew names last week for angels and left small gifts for them each day. One final present was given at the party as the secret angels' names were revealed.

The lobby was the site of State Hall's Christmas party last night.

Entertainment was provided and refreshments were served. Dorm Devotions in Potter Hall tonight will feature Miss Lana Vincent singing "Little Drummer Boy."

Diana Upton, in charge of the devotions, will begin the services at 10:30.

Immediately following devotions in the lobby will be the annual Christmas party. Gifts will be exchanged and each girl's guardian angel will be announced.

Rose Combs, in charge of the party, expects a special guest, Santa Claus, to attend.

Dorm officers were elected in Potter Hall recently for the coming school year. Elected were Pat Smith, president; Sherry Cooke, first vice president; Rose Combs, second vice president; Diane Upton, third vice president; and Nancy Wiles, secretary-treasurer.

Patty Arnold was selected Potter's representative for the new constitutional committee in which all dorms participate. Others serving on the committee are Paulette Hoskins, Sandy Motley, Sandy Dorris, Sharon Whelan and Judy Hawkins.

Dormitory officers also were elected in East Hall.

Upperclassmen selected were Jo Ann Denham, president; Martha Baugh, first vice president; Lorraine Thomas, second vice president; Roxane Scharry, third vice president; Marilyn Robison, secretary; and Brenda Fulkerson, chairman of the standards committee.

Coach Ecker Leaves On Trip To Europe

"Good will, recruiting and lecturing," says Tom Ecker, head track coach, are his purposes for a trip to Iceland, Sweden and England this month.

Ecker's three-week trip will be highlighted by a series of lectures to be given in Sweden.

This is a return trip for the coach, who was sent to the Scandinavian countries as a track consultant and lecturer for 11 weeks in the summer of 1964.

Players, Spanish Club Join In Family Drama

By SKIP WAGONER

"La dama del alba" was presented last Wednesday by the Spanish department in cooperation with Western Players.

Western Players has for several years included two foreign language plays during its monthly meetings.

The play, under the direction of Mrs. H. J. Huey, was superior to any in the past. The original play, much longer than the version presented Wednesday, lost none of its meaning, thanks to Mrs. Huey's excellent job of condensing.

Some of the dialogue was recorded in English, allowing the audience to follow the play. Narrator Don Foster unified the play.

The actors looked convincing as the characters they were playing, from a small male child to an elderly grandfather, due to the skill of the make-up artists: Carolyn McFerran, Sue Fried, Jerri Bowman, Gayle Nowlin and Mrs. Rita Chandler.

The scenes involving the entire family of 10 were handled very well on the small Snell Hall stage.

The grandfather, played by Ken Bullivant, seemed to be the all-wise old man who had led the family through many troubled times and was now enjoying a relaxed retirement. Bullivant handled his role well.

Martin, portrayed by Randy Atcher, and the mother, played by Mrs. Jo Ann Hughes, deserve credit for their roles.

The role of Quico, played by Paul Spencer, brought the house down with laughter more than once.

Death cannot be overlooked. Mary Elizabeth Griffin played Death with the power and feeling the audience could fully understand.

Others in the cast were Lynda Huyck, David Denton, Jan DeMoss, Loretta Johnson, Faye Kusma, Maria Lugo, Mrs. Gloria Brown, Johnny Thomas Duncan and Larry Page.

Credit should be given to stage manager Brian Davis, who put the technical aspects of the show together in near-perfect style.

David M. Doll designed the sets for the show. Dr. Mildred Howard is co-ordinator of Western's Experimental Theatre.

Toppers Seek VIT, OVC Titles

Exuberant, Spirited Hilltoppers Plan To Give Themselves A Christmas Gift By Unwrapping Tournament Packages

By AL STILLEY
Herald Sports Editor

The Hilltopper basketball team is going Christmas shopping tomorrow. As a matter of fact, they may not collect all their presents until Tuesday night.

Their packages are labeled "Vanderbilt Tournament" and "Ohio Valley Conference Tournament." It will take a bit of cunning and tact to open both packages. Even then, some of the contents may be damaged.

But the Hilltoppers want both packages just as much as a five-year-old lad wants all the toys in the world.

The unwrapping of the Vanderbilt Tournament will take place tomorrow night in Nashville as the Toppers play Southern Methodist University. So place a Mustang under Western's Christmas tree. In the same package, there is an Army Cadet and a Vanderbilt Commodore.

SECOND PACKAGE

On the fifth day before Christmas, Western will have a chance to open its second big package. So make room under the Topper Christmas tree for a Governor, Buccaneer, Maroon, Blue Raider, Thoroughbred and a pair of Eagles.

With Christmas a few days away coach John Oldham is as anxious as the members of the Hilltopper squad to unwrap the glitter of both tournaments.

"At the present time, I feel that this club has developed its defense and its rebounding more rapidly than I thought they could at this point," began coach Oldham. "In those two areas, the team is ahead of where it should be for this time in our season."

TEAM IS READY

Coach Oldham, with three-month-old daughter Suzanne on his lap, further explained, "The team is ready for both tournaments. We know of the reputation of SMU's defending Southwest Conference champions and would like nothing better than to beat them to get a crack at the championship."

Assistant coach Gene Rhodes traveled to New Orleans over the weekend to watch SMU battle Tulane. With four returning starters, the Mustangs appear to be a smart and seasoned team. SMU is deliberate and mixes its defenses under coach Doc Hayes.

Following the Vanderbilt Invitational, the Toppers will travel to Louisville, Sunday, for the OVC Tournament beginning Monday. Western, runnerup to Murray last year in the tourney, definitely is the favorite.

SHINING TREE

After Western's impressive 100-61 victory over Memphis State, coach Oldham, in praising several members of the team, said, "Clem Haskins played his best all-round game in a Topper uniform by getting 11 rebounds and seven assists and hitting 12 of 17 shots from the field. Dwight Smith's floor play and defense was exceptional and Wayne Chapman turned in his best over all game."

"So far I have been very impressed with our starters," said Oldham, "and the ability of our substitutes is tremendous. They have confidence and any one of them can come through for us."

With that combination, is it any wonder why the Hilltopper Christmas tree will be shining brightly on Christmas Day? Even the stockings may be well filled.

Hawking Toppers Pace OVC Team Statistics

Western's Hilltoppers were leading the Ohio Valley Conference in four team categories according to statistics released through Monday's games by commissioner Art Guepe.

Before Tuesday's 84-59 win over Abilene Christian, Western was averaging 98.0 points per game and holding the opponents to 66.0 points per contest, both tops in the league.

And Western had limited its four opponents to just 39.3 rebounds per game.

The Toppers were a close second in field goal percentage with 47.5 per cent. Murray was leading the league with 57.8 per cent.

Western was also second in free throw shooting percentage with 76.4. Austin Peay stands at 77.4 per cent from the charity line.

Coach John Oldham's Hilltoppers are the only undefeated team in the OVC.

Individually, Clem Haskins was second in scoring with 23.0 points per game. Murray's Herb McPherson has scored 24.2 points in five games for the Racers.

Dwight Smith was fifth with a 19.0 average and Steve Cunningham ranked 20th with 13.0 points per outing.

Haskins was the league's fifth most frequent rebounder and Dwight Smith and Cunningham

Balanced Tops Eye Morehead

Western will seek its fifth Ohio Valley Conference tournament championship Monday night in Louisville as the Toppers battle upstart Morehead.

The Western-Morehead duel will be the final game of the first day of activity in Louisville's Convention Center. Game time will be 8 p.m. (CST).

Middle Tennessee and Murray open the action at 12 noon (CST) to be followed by Eastern and Austin Peay to complete the first round of play in the upper bracket.

Lower bracket play begins at 7 p.m. (CST) as East Tennessee battles Tennessee Tech in a duel of Volunteer State clubs. Then it's Morehead and Western.

Noon Slate

The two upper bracket winners are slated to play at noon (CST) Tuesday with the lower bracket set for 2 p.m. The championship will be played at 7 p.m. (CST).

The Hilltoppers of coach John Oldham are heavy favorites to capture their fifth Holiday tourney crown. The Toppers won the meet in 1949, 1952, 1953 and 1954 under now-retired E. A. Diddle.

Other tourney championships have been won by Eastern Kentucky (1950, 1955) and Murray (1951, 1965).

All Teams Play

This tourney will allow the followers of each OVC team to see all the league's teams in action in the two-day tourney. The top line individual performers are Clem Haskins, Dwight Smith, Steve Cunningham and Wayne Chapman of Western, 6-6 Eddie Bodkin and center Garfield Smith of Eastern Kentucky, gigantic 6-10 Dick Cunningham and 6-8 Stewart Johnson of unpredictable Murray and Tommy Woods of fast-rising East Tennessee.

If the Hilltoppers reach the championship game, it will mean that the Hilltoppers within the coming five days will have played five games.

Western Faces SMU Tomorrow

The Hilltoppers will be confronted with enormous challenges in the Vanderbilt Tournament which begins tomorrow and concludes Saturday night.

Under coach John Oldham, Western must overcome the deliberate tactics of Southern Methodist University's defending Southwest Conference champions in the first game of the VIT.

The Mustangs of coach Doc Hayes use a variety of defenses which have been mastered by four of five returning starters from last year's youthful 17-10 squad. Returning for SMU are an all-conference center Carroll Hooser, a 6-7 senior; Bob Beger, a 6-6 junior forward, and juniors Charles Beasley and Denny Holman.

SMU defeated Tulane, 78-69 at New Orleans in a contest which Western assistant coach Gene Rhodes witnessed. The Mustangs upset Oklahoma City Tuesday before departing for the Vandy Invitational.

'Gem' To Begin

Coach Oldham probably will start Clem (The Gem) Haskins and Greg Smith at forward with Steve Cunningham, center, and Dwight Smith and Wayne Chapman at guard.

The winner of the SMU-Western game will oppose the Vanderbilt-Army victor in the championship game Saturday night.

Army appears to be too small and deliberate to cope with Vanderbilt's flashy Commodores who are paced by everybody's All-American 6-9 Clyde Lee. The towering geology major has a supporting cast of Jerry Southwood and Keith Thomas in the backcourt and sophomore Bo Weyanandt up front.

Western appears capable of causing considerable trouble for both SMU and Vanderbilt. The Toppers have more depth, speed and scoring punch than they had last year when Western was humbled by the Commodores in a regular season contest.

If a Western-Vanderbilt championship game materializes, it may be the game-of-the-year in Southern basketball.

Jumpin' Jane Cheers Toppers

Western cheerleader Jane Baize, Owensboro junior, watches intently as the Hilltoppers try to outmaneuver Memphis State. Then the pensive lass leaps high and even higher as Toppers win 100-61.

Frank Griffin: Santa Claus Of IM Program

For nearly 20 years, Frank Griffin, director of recreation and intramurals, has been playing Santa Claus to the competitive needs of the Western students.

The pipe-smoking Griffin has catered to the students since 1946 when the intramural program began on a budget which consisted of proceeds from selling popcorn at home basketball games. At that time, the program included only basketball and touch football.

Now the program has been expanded to include 11 sports in the men's intramural program, eight women's sports and activities for faculty members in addition to mixed activities, club programs and the proposed "free play" periods.

"The growth has been phenomenal," explained Griffin in his office in the Academic-Athletic Building. "But through the excellent cooperation with the staff and student leaders, the intramural program has matched the overall progress of the college."

The intramural program received an added boost when Dr. William Solley was appointed head of the physical education, health and recreation department.

"Without Dr. Solley's interest, we would not have been able to expand the program as we have this fall," stated Griffin.

"The intramural program is vital to the overall physical education program at Western," said Solley. "I know of no other program which can reach so many students."

This year, the intramural program is being handled by Griffin, women's faculty advisor Miss Betty Langley, graduate student assistant Walter Hawkins, and intramural council president Cecil Franklin.

With basketball now underway, the intramural council has been busily preparing attractive and well-rounded schedules. With last Monday's action, four games will be played in the A-A Building auxiliary gymnasium, the College High gymnasium and the E. A. Diddle Arena.

The intramural program has expanded to include various club and recreational activities. Those include the Judo club, which performed exceptionally during the halftime of the Western-Campbellsville basketball game, the newly formed Dance club, the Track club and proposed Swimming club.

A tremendous expansion is tentatively planned for the spring semester with the proposed formation of a "free play" program on weekends. With the assistance of Dr. Solley, Griffin and several student assistants, students will be able to use the various facilities of the Academic-Athletic Building on weekends.

"This is an attempt to make students more familiar with the facilities offered through the physical education department," explained Griffin. "It will also encourage students to stay at Western during weekends."

At the moment, over 4,000 participants are involved in the numerous activities offered by the physical education department and the intramural program. The program will be growing in the future.

In a sense, the Christmas stocking at the Griffin household will be filled with a promising overflow of activities for Western students.

Intramural Corner

By MAURICE FORKER

Roadrunners and Jefferson County were winners over Sigma Nu and Sigma Alpha Epsilon in the intramural football play-off games Dec. 7 and 8.

In the championship game Roadrunners slammed Sigma Nu 20-6. Glen Higdon scored two touchdowns on 20 and 35-yard passes. Tom Meredith intercepted a stray Sigma Nu pass on the second play of the game and ran it back for the other Roadrunner score.

Sigma Nu's only tally came on a seven-yard keeper play by quarterback "Mugs" Thompson.

Jefferson County whipped Sigma Alpha Epsilon 26-12 as Corky Hall threw three TD passes to end John Koelndorfer covering 50, 30 and 50 yards respectively.

Rick Pfeiffer added the other score on a one-yard plunge. SAE's scores came on a pass from Cecil Franklin to John Noel covering 40 yards and a pass from Noel to Franklin covering 60 yards.

Basketball

The basketball starting date has been postponed and reset for January.

Basketball was scheduled to begin last Monday, but the large number of teams participating made it impossible for a schedule to be made out in time.

Boys interested in playing volleyball should be organizing a team. Volleyball will begin after the holidays.

Ex-Topper Key To Cleveland's Future

Browns In NFL Title Game; Lindsey To Be There, Too

By KEITH HEILMAN

Dale Lindsey is one reason why the Cleveland Browns have captured the National Football League's Eastern Division crown.

The former Western and Ohio Valley Conference performer is now a successful linebacker for Coach Blanton Collier's Browns.

Drafted By Two

Lindsey was given the choice of playing professional ball after the 1964 season ended. He had an option of playing for either the New York Jets or Cleveland Browns.

Dale was offered an outstanding pact with the Browns. As a rookie he received a contract from them for one year plus a bonus which amounted to a total of $25,000.

The former Western linebacker recently commented, "Pro ball is more complicated than I had thought."

Dale says that he has a lot of studying to do because of the many different plays he must learn for the position he is playing.

Middle Linebacker

His main assignment is middle linebacker, but he also works on the kick-off and punt return squads. Dale has 2,500 transferred to Western for his sophomore year.

He gave the Toppers a great boost in winning the Ohio Valley Conference and the Tangerine Bowl in 1963. In the following season, the Toppers were 6-3-1, and Lindsey led the team in tackles.

Active Rookie

The former Western star has seen a lot of action this year as a rookie. Next year he will have to go through the same process if he expects to retain his role.

The ex-Hilltopper is still helping Western although he's now in pro football, for he helped make Western known to other potential prospects through his participation on the Topper football team.

Now, Dale is still carrying the Western brand and aiding in the recruiting of new athletes and perhaps future pros.

plays to learn for the positions that he plays.

The former Topper indicated that the biggest adjustment in switching from college to pro ball is the idea that it's an occupation and not just a game. And he has to excel if he expects to go on drawing the big money.

"It is still fun to play football," Lindsey said, "but here you know you have to improve to go on playing year after year."

Dale's day starts at 8:30 in the morning with about one and one-half hours of study of plays and skull sessions and then another hour and a half of practice. In the afternoon the players repeat the morning workout and study.

Bowling Green Grad

Dale, a Bowling Green High school product, has come a long way from his prep school days. Upon being graduated from high school, the young star had a choice of many schools to attend.

Lindsey first enrolled at the University of Kentucky. He

OVC Inter-Loop Action Starts After Holidays

Following the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament, Western opens its regular OVC season Saturday, January 8, at Tennessee Tech.

The Toppers will return to the E. A. Diddle Arena floor to host East Tennessee, Monday, January 10.

Western has won or shared a part of the OVC basketball crown during 10 of the 16 seasons as a member of the conference. The Hilltoppers last captured the title in 1962.

The following season, with coach John Oldham in command at Tennessee Tech, the Golden Eagles captured their first conference title by defeating Morehead in a play-off in Western's gymnasium.

And Coach Oldham would like nothing better than to win his second title at his alma mater, Western. The Hilltoppers are the favorites to capture the championship.

"This conference is always tough," explained coach Oldham. "And this year will be no exception. There are at least six teams in the OVC that are capable of winning the conference."

The Toppers will waste little time in getting into the middle of the competition. Western will visit Eastern Kentucky's defending champions, Jan. 15 and Morehead's unpredictable Eagles, Jan. 17.

The Hilltoppers finished second last year with a 10-4 OVC record and 17-8 overall.

Prime competition will come from always dangerous Murray, Eastern Kentucky, Tennessee Tech with East Tennessee and Morehead's fast-running darkhorses. The conference winner again will represent the OVC in the National Collegiate Athletic Association's championship basketball tournament at the end of the season.

The OVC season officially will open January 3 with Eastern entertaining Morehead. The following night Tennessee Tech is at East Tennessee with Middle Tennessee hosting Murray.

Dwight Smith Leads Hilltop Defense Against Memphis State, Abilene Christian

Western 84, Abilene Christian 59. Sputtering on offense—but excelling defensively, the Hilltoppers took win No. 5 for the season against weary Abilene Christian 84-59.

The Hilltoppers, playing before 7,000 E. A. Diddle Arena spectators, rifled 37 of 74 shots from the field to send ACC back to Texas with a 5-2 record.

Evasive Steve Cunningham blistered 11 of 14 field goal attempts and added 26 points for his best-ever production in a Topper uniform. The soft-shooting 6-5 center was assisted by Dwight Smith's 22 point output, Clem Haskins' 13 points, and Greg Smith with 10.

Cunningham and Greg Smith led the game-high rebounders with 11 apiece as the Toppers rebounded the guests 47-40.

Western 100, Memphis St. 41. Displaying their best effort of the season, Western disposed of Memphis State 100-41 before 9,000 spectators in the E. A. Diddle Arena last Saturday.

The Hilltoppers, leading at halftime 39-29, exploded during the second half to strike 23 of 36 field goal attempts for a 69.4 percentage that thwarted Memphis State's Tigers.

Junior forward Clem (The Gem) Haskins turned in his finest game as a Hilltopper by grabbing 11 rebounds, making seven assists and scoring 31 points. Team captain Dwight Smith, who led the team defensively, tallied 17 points and took eight rebounds.

Smith was credited with nullifying the offensive punch of Memphis' Mike Butler who only scored 15 points. Center Mike O'Dell also scored 15 points for the confused Tigers of coach Bob Ehlers.

Western left the contest unbeaten in four games while the Tigers dropped to a 2-2 record before having encountered Texas A & M last Monday.

Western Track Club To Visit Canada

Members of the Western Kentucky Track Club have been invited to several indoor track meets, throughout the country.

The indoor meets, to which the team members were invited, are at Miami, Fla., Toronto, Ontario, and Winnipeg, Canada.

DODGEREBELLIONGIRL Watchers, Rejoice!

Prompted by a ground swell of collegiate enthusiasm (and to help eliminate long vigils and scrambling for choice seats when she suddenly appears on TV), Dodge Division is happy to publish Reb-Girl Pam Austin's complete schedule through January, 1966. Be sure to watch the Rose and Orange Bowl games on New Year's Day. You'll see Pam in a new color commercial introducing the fabulous fastback, Dodge Charger. And now a word from your sponsor: Back to the books!
